

Dickinson Police

News Release

By: Detective Tim Cromie

Dickinson Police Department Desk: 281-337-6359

Criminal Investigations Division e-mail: tcromie@ci.dickinson.tx.us

UPDATE: December 3, 2005 11:45 p.m.

The mother of the lost child has been located. A follow-up investigation into the incident will be conducted by Children's Protective Services and the Dickinson Police Department.

December 3, 2005

December 3, 2005, at about 6:40 PM, the Dickinson Police Department received a call in reference to a found child. Patrol officers arrived in the neighborhood and located a citizen who had heard a child crying. The citizen had stepped outside the residence and found a white male approximately 2 years old walking alone in the street. Patrol officers canvassed the neighborhood and were unsuccessful in locating the child's parents or guardians.

The child is described as a white male, approximately two years of age, 24-28 inches tall, weighing about 30 lbs. The child has curly blonde hair and hazel eyes. He is wearing a red short sleeve t-shirt and short blue jean overalls. The child was not wearing any shoes. Anyone who may know the identity of the child is asked to contact the Dickinson Police Department at 281-337-4700.