

Checking out Audio Books & E-Books in Overdrive

On the left side of the Dickinson Public Library homepage you will find the link to our E-Service page.

The Overdrive Catalog is the first link on our E-Service website. When you click on the link, you will be redirected to the Overdrive website.

To log into the Overdrive website, on the right side of the page, click on the sign in button.

You will need to choose your library, in this case, Dickinson Public Library from the list

Enter your Library card number and for the Pin it will be your last name all lowercase.

A screenshot of the Overdrive sign-in form. It features a dropdown menu titled 'SELECT YOUR LIBRARY FROM THE LIST BELOW:' with 'Dickinson Public Library' selected. Below the dropdown is an input field for 'CARD NUMBER' with the placeholder text 'Patron Library Card Number'. At the bottom is a 'PIN' input field with a toggle icon for visibility.

To check out a book or audio book, search for the title you wish to check out. In this case, I will be checking out The Scorch Trial by James Dashner. Once you have found your title, click on the text Borrow.

You will see a message at the top of the browser

Now, go back to the top and click on the My Account button and click Loans

This will show when the audiobook/ book will expire or rather will be auto return. You will have two option with audiobook to either download the mp3 or listen in the browser. Of course, if you want to return it early you can by clicking on the Return button at the bottom of the book.

To return the book or audiobook click the Return button and a message will appear asking if you want to continue returning a book or audiobook.
