

TAG You're It!

What is TAG?

The Teen Advisory Group (TAG) is a group of volunteers, grade 7-12, that represent Dickinson's teens. Members of TAG attend monthly meetings to discuss issues related to teen use of Dickinson Public Library; such as activities, books, music, and movies. They also assist our library section by volunteering and assisting with programs.

Overall goals include:

- Represent the young adults served by Dickinson Public Library
- Educate young adults about library services and programs
- Improve and expand the Youth Services of Dickinson Public Library
- Help decide what books, CDs, movies, and magazines circulate at the library
- Inform peers of library events
- Network with TAGs throughout the area
- Major programs will include Teen Read Week, Banned Book Week, Teen Tech Week and Teen Summer Reading Program

Expectation of TAG members

As a member of the Teen Advisory Group (TAG), there are certain expectations and requirements. TAG members must:

- Be enrolled in school.
- Act respectfully.
- Be dependable and accountable for own actions.
- Attend TAG meetings and programs.
- Keep track of all volunteer service hours by signing in and out when volunteering at library.
- Have an active library card and be in good standing with the library.
